

Matchbox Garden and Seed Co. &
Toronto and Region Conservation present:

THE LIVING CITY® FARM FEAST

IN SUPPORT OF THE LIVING CITY® FARM

Enjoy food on the farm, from the farm, prepared by world class chefs

Photo Credit: Laura Beiman

Sunday, September 25, 2011

Time: 3 pm – 7 pm

Venue: The Living City® Campus at Kortright is located 3 km west of Highway 400, north Rutherford Road and south of Major Mackenzie Drive on Pine Valley Drive in the City of Vaughan

Cost: $75 (includes wine and shuttle)

Enjoy a delicious cuisine prepared on site by Jason Inniss of Jason Inniss Catering, Nick Liu of Niagara St. Café, Tom Brodi of TOCA at the Ritz-Carlton, Toronto, Joshna Maharaj and Scott Vivian of The Beast Restaurant perfectly complemented by local wine makers and breweries. Get to know the farmers working the land and discover the different farming methods as they nurture seeds into bountiful tables of harvest, take a nature hike long the trails and learn about the innovative technologies demonstrated on site.

The Living City® Farm is the first urban farm in the Region of York, showcasing bio-intensive farming models to produce food all year round—increasing the supply of fresh and local food.

To purchase tickets, shuttle details and map visit: www.trca.on.ca/livingcityfarmfeast
For more information, please contact: hanna@matchboxgarden.ca

MATCHBOX GARDEN & SEED CO.

Member of Conservation Ontario