

Introduction of Student Nutrition Ontario (SNO)

Presented by: Viviane Dégagné

- * SNO is a collaborative network of the 14 Lead Agencies who represent 14 regions across Ontario
- * Each Lead Agency is responsible to deliver and oversee Student Nutrition Programs across the Province
- * In 2019/2020 we served 97,000,000 meals
- * During COVID we served close to 16,000,000 meals to at home learners
- * We have 4,586 programs across the province

* Metrics

- * We are funded by The Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services.
- * We also work with many National, Provincial and Community Partners who help support our programs

* Funding

Presenters

Daniel Hobbs is the Lead person for the for Thunder Bay and District Student Nutrition Program. The Canadian Red Cross, Thunder Bay and District is the Lead Agency. He has worked with a local partner Roots of Harvest to identify and reach virtual learners and ensure they have access to healthy and nutritious food while being at home learners.

* Presenters

Gerard Capellan is the Food and Logistic Coordinator for the Toronto Foundation for Student Success (TFSS), the Lead Agency for the Toronto region. Gerard will speak about TFSS' Nutrition Pantry Program. This program helps ensure that students have access to healthy and nutritious foods during the current pandemic.

Jillian McCallum is also a Food and Logistics Coordinator for the Ontario Student Nutrition Program - Southwest Region. The Lead agency in this area is VON-Canada. Jillian has been instrumental in developing a School Food Delivery Program that she will speak about. This has been very successful in her region and has grown rapidly.

*
Presenters

Angela Fuchs is a Community Development Coordinator in Central East. Her Lead Agency is Peterborough Child and Family Centers. Angela along with some of her community partners have come up with innovative ways to ensure youth in their region are fed while schools were closed. Heather Thoma, Food Procurement Coordinator in this region will be helping Angela today.

*Presenters

